She has a solid understanding of children's psychology, thus gently redirecting and motivating Lakshmi to do her best. My daughter tries hard to focus on her classes but cannot regulate herself emotionally that well yet, leading to her being easily distracted and restless. Jazveen Mam skilfully ensures she takes part in class without putting her down or scolding her for something which she can't yet fully control. Her support has been crucial for Lakshmi, instilling confidence in the child. Further, as a parent during online classes I have always witnessed her as an exceptional role model for a kind, respectful attitude.

Mentor Name: Ms. Neeti Chugh

Message: We as parents were conscious about limiting screen time for our 2 year old son. Introducing online classes seemed challenging. However, Shahaan has become very connected with Ms. Neeti and adores her. Even though he might not always stay put in class there is never any resistance to the school routine and he willingly gets ready and eager to see Ms. Neeti on the screen and sometimes only wants to pin her on the screen which he has picked up on his own. I would give credit to the aura and ever smiling face of Ma'am and of course the wonderful way she conducts the class. He takes ma'am's name many times during the day and has even included her in our everyday games and pretend play, all on his own from his own heart. Thank you Ms. Neeti for patiently and smilingly teaching our kids and being able to connect so beautifully. Gratitude and regards, Mr & Mrs. Charla & Shahaan

We are so blessed that we got both for our child. As a parent, I want to thank you for your never ending efforts and patience that goes into teaching, especially, under typical circumstances. Teaching during this pandemic is so far from typical. It's literally nothing school systems would have ever done before. This isn't what you signed for, and yet you're doing it anyway. You're putting together distance learning plans. You're adapting your teaching in the blink of an eye. You may not be listed as essential workers, but you are essential "To our children ". Because you are my child's teacher, I know she is in best hands and that there will be a bright future. We have seen how they have become "your kids" year after year. I want to let you know, in the coming years when the world will see our child succeed, we will see her teacher in her. Thankyou for being a great mentor. Nothing will replace the sincere mentorship of a teacher like you. Thankyou so much for your guidance always.
